What is SCIS ?

Schools Catalogue Information Service (SCIS), a business unit of Curriculum Corporation, is a national cataloguing service for Australian, New Zealand and international schools. Owned by the nation's education authorities, SCIS currently has over 85% of Australian schools downloading catalogue records from the SCIS database. Find out more about SCIS at <http://www.curriculum.edu.au/scis/scis.htm>.

Quality Assurance

SCIS catalogued websites have been through a quality selection and evaluation process. See the criteria SCIS uses for selecting websites at <http://www.curriculum.edu.au/scis/catalog/criteria.htm>.
